Moonlight Rides to Marshall Hall.

Have you ever tried one of the moon-light rides to Marshall Hall and Indian Head on the steamer Charles Macaiester? If not, you do not know what a treat you are missing. These are the most select and popular excursions that sail down the Potomac. It is an easy matter to be cool seated in a steamer chair on the broad decks of the boat, enjoying the breezes fresh from the river. Prof. Schroeder's band accompanies the boat and plays all tha latest dance music at the Hall. Parties spending the day at the Hall can avail them selves of the Indian Head trips run every Thursday, Friday, and Saturday at 6:39 p. m. Daily trips are made to Marshall Hall at 10 a. m., 2:30 and 6:30 p. m.

OFFER PRESQUE ISLE

ERIE, Pa., Aug. 10.—Capt. W. H. Reeder, chairman; W. M. Bradley, H. M. Waite, and R. H. Moses, comprising the naval board appointed to select a site on the lakes for a Government naval station, are expected here for the purpose of examining the various locations in this vicinity.

A committee from the chamber of commerce has been appointed to meet the commission and show the available sites, the most prominent of which is the historic Presque Isle peninsula, splendidly adapted for the purpose.

He stood with his derby hat pulled down over his eyes half concealing his features.

Two of the three men stood at the factive of the rail, on the starboard side, facing the Jersey shore, and the third stood a few feet away from them. Suddenly the two men staggered apart, one of them bumping the third.
